Scams

The Adventurer's club welcomed three guest speakers to our January 9th meeting.

Our thanks go out to these individuals who brought their time and talent to Pine Plains to share information that is beneficial to all, especially the members of our club. All programs were explained and questions and concerns answered.

All flyers, information packets and applications that were distributed that day are available at Town Hall. If you would like any of these products, please call the Supervisor's office and we will get them out to you.

Dear Pine Plains, by Supervisor Darrah Cloud

I sat in the supervisor's office fielding phone calls from the press about the life of Shannon Smith Kent, a native of Pine Plains, a decorated Navy cryptologist stationed in Syria, who died in the attack there. I dearly hope I took some of the chaos off the shoulders of her wonderful family, her mother a friend and fellow writer and teacher, her father head of State Troopers in our region. We are so heartbroken about this loss. But what a life she led. What courage and vitality it took for her to live so far away in such a dangerous place and find the kind of important work that few ever get to do. How much a product of this particular place and her parents she was. The town of Pine Plains will miss her. Flags are flying at half mast in her honor.

You should all know that after many years of dedicated service, Ray Christensen has decided to move on. We thank him for his efforts over the years and wish him well in his endeavors.

Dave Owens has volunteered to be at the community room (until a more permanent solution is established) on Wednesdays from 11:30am to 1pm to direct activities for all who are interested. Please come spend some time in community with our fellow Pine Plainians.

Coming Up...

February 13th will be our Valentine's Day potluck. Please bring something to share. We will provide the drinks. There will also be some romantic music to listen to while we celebrate Valentine's Day.

Movie and popcorn will start at 12 noon on Wednesday, March 13th. Please come join us for a nice afternoon with friends enjoying a great "flick".
